The Arati Kadav directorial, starring Sanya Malhotra, Mrs is set to be screened at the Indian Film festival of Melbourne. Both Sanya and the director will attend the screening in Australia. The festival will be held from August 15 to 25.

Mrs delves into the life of a woman, portrayed by Sanya Malhotra, a dance teacher. After her marriage, she faces the challenges of being a wife while striving to discover her own path and voice. The film explores her journey of self-expression amidst societal expectations imposed on her marital life. The film is the Hindi remake of the critically acclaimed Malayalam film The Great Indian Kitchen and also features Kanwaljit Singh and Nishant Dahiya in pivotal roles.

Speaking about the film's Australian premiere, Sanya Malhotra expressed her excitement, "I am thrilled and honored that Mrs will have its Australian premiere at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. This film is incredibly special to me as it explores the complex and nuanced journey of a woman trying to find her own voice

With only days left for the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) to commence, viewers eagerly await their favourite movies to be showcased at the 15th edition of this prestigious film festival. The latest news is that Sanya Malhotra's Mrs by Arati Kadav is all set to have its Australian premiere during the event. Both Arati and Sanya are expected to attend the event in person.

Mrs traverses the journey of a trained dancer and dance teacher portrayed by Sanya who faces innumerable challenges after marriage to find her own path in this world. The film highlights how a married woman fights for survival and finding her own voice amidst societal pressures.

In Sanya's words, "I am thrilled and honored that 'Mrs' will have its Australian premiere at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. This film is incredibly special to me as it explores the complex and nuanced journey of a woman trying to find her own voice amidst the expectations of society."

Sharing her experience of working with Arati, she continues, "Working with

Over the past nine months, it has been one film festival after another for Sanya Malhotra's Mrs. Last November, Arati Kadav's directorial venture premiered at the Tallinn Black Nights Film Festival, followed by screenings at the Palm Springs International Film Festival and the New York Indian Film Festival. Now, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne 2024 (IFFM) has chosen it as one of its centre-piece movies. The drama will be screened on August 23, with both the leading lady and director Kadav in attendance.

An adaptation of the Malayalam film, The Great Indian Kitchen (2021), Mrs delves into the life of Richa, a dance teacher whose life is suddenly confined to the kitchen when she marries into a conservative family. Malhotra, who has earned the Best Actress nomination at IFFM 2024 for the film, says, "Mrs is special to me as it explores the complex journey of a woman trying to find her own voice amid society's expectations. Working with Arati Kadav and the entire team has been a profound experience. The IFFM has always celebrated diverse narratives, and I am grateful for the opportunity to be a part of it."

While the Jio Studios offering—also starring Kanwaljit Singh and Nishant Dahiya— delves into the emotional intricacies of a woman's life, Kadav credits her leading lady for enriching the material further. She says, "Sanya's performance brings depth to the character, making it a powerful narrative."

'Mrs' delves into the intricate life of a woman, portrayed by Sanya Malhotra, who is a trained dancer and dance teacher. After her marriage, she faces the challenges of being a wife while striving to discover her own path and voice, the statement said.

The film explores her journey of self-expression amidst societal expectations imposed on her marital life. The film is the Hindi remake of the critically acclaimed Malayalam film "The Great Indian Kitchen (/topic/the-great-indian-kitchen)" and also features Kanwaljit Singh and Nishant Dahiya in pivotal roles.

Director Arati Kadav also expressed excitement about the film's premiere.

"IFFM is a prestigious platform, and we are excited to showcase 'Mrs' here. This film delves into the emotional and societal intricacies of a woman's life, and having it as a centerpiece at IFFM is a testament to its universal appeal and relevance. Sanya's performance brings depth and authenticity to the character, making it a powerful narrative."

The festival is set to commence on August 15 and conclude on August 25. (ANI)
