Habbadi and Natkhat will open Indian Film Festival of Melbourne this year.

The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, which is hosted in August annually, will be held virtually this year from October 23 to 30. While earlier, the festival director Mitu Bhowmick Lange had hoped to do a compact schedule at the original venue, it will be conducted online instead because of the ongoing coronavirus pandemic. Vidya Balan's Natkhat and Marathi film Habbadi will open the festival this year.

All the popular sections of the festival namely Hurrah Bollywood, Beyond Bollywood, Film India World, Documentaries and Shorts are expected to be on the schedule. Interestingly,
