The critically acclaimed Indo-Australian film collaboration “My Melbourne” is gearing up for its

"The success of 'My Melbourne' has been overwhelming and deeply fulfilling," said Mitu Bhowmick Lange, CEO of Mind Blowing Films and the creative force behind the project. "It has proven that stories told with authenticity and heart can transcend borders. We are honored to have some of the most acclaimed filmmakers of Indian cinema lend their voice and vision to the second edition. This project continues to be a celebration of inclusivity, collaboration and creativity between India and Australia's the project has given us the opportunity to work with emerging creatives from under represented communities."

The new director roster brings together some of Indian cinema's most socially conscious voices. Hirani, the filmmaker behind beloved hits like the "Munna Bhai" series and "3 Idiots," expressed enthusiasm for the cross-cultural storytelling opportunity.

"I am truly excited to be part of a project that uses cinema to explore diverse human experiences while connecting two vibrant cultures," Hirani said. "'My Melbourne' offers a rare opportunity to tell a story that is intimate, universal, and culturally resonant."

Menon, known for her nuanced portrayals of family dynamics and relationships, including "Bangalore Days" and "Koode," sees the project as aligned with her storytelling sensibilities. "The themes and intention behind 'My Melbourne' align deeply with the kind of stories I love to tell — ones that build empathy and bring people closer," she said. "I'm thrilled to collaborate on this journey of storytelling across continents."
